The Willow Slough Difficulty.

A few days ago one of the boys at the above school, named Joseph Kinkade, disobeyed the rules of the school, and upon the teacher, W. H. Edwards, attempting to enforce them a fight ensued, in which it appears that both parties got rather roughly handled.

Promoted, Dastardly Assault.

On Thursday afternoon a young man named James Brown having a grudge against M. Davidson, who keeps a bowling-alley in this place, seeing the latter sitting on a box in front of his saloon, deliberately walked up to him and struck him a blow with a heavy cudgel, knocking him senseless.

We call attention to the advertisement of the above Company in this paper. It is unquestionably one of the best Life Assurance Companies extant, and makes an astonishing showing by the amount of its business.

All Fool's Day.

Yesterday being the first of April, some of the College students got off some practical jokes and had much fun over them. The bell, we noticed, had lost its wonted melody, and the new sounds like a cracked kettle under the blows of a hammer.

Letter from a "Verdant Youth."

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29, 1870.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—I wish to make a correction through your valuable paper, of a certain article which appeared in the columns of an obnoxious sheet in this city, a few days ago, and which furnishes the basis for certain reflections upon myself, both unjust and uncalled for.

The letter I refer to, was written from Woodland and signed "Francis B.," which would give the impression that it was written by a lady. Such however was not the case, it having been produced by the joint efforts of two or three impecunious specimens of male humanity.

The writer having lost all sense of manhood, has descended to a pettiness, in order better to further his ends. Having peddled his execrable trash round from one paper to another to get it published, he is assuming to be one of "God's best gifts to man," thus imposing on the usual respect for the individual, published his letter.

The letter in itself, however, although containing many large words, which a constant attendance on "Webster" produced, (and which, as he tells us in his letter he had to find out the definition of before using,) amounts to nothing, but was a mere superfluity to enable the writer to call the reporter of Mrs. Gordon's lecture names, such as "a cypher," "a silly boy," "a Verdant Youth," etc.

Now, Mr. Editor, how can a cipher report a lecture, or even a silly little boy? Is it complimentary to the press at large, to call one who can write a few lines, hastily taken down, write on the back of a card, and then come on the train from Woodland to San Francisco? Or the writer himself admits that this cipher has some ability. Now, then, can he be a silly little boy? He calls in question my logic; where is his own consistency? It would be far more consistent and logical for me to call this female man a goose. A goose has two legs, but is an animal; so is a man an animal with two legs, but does it follow that a man is a goose? I think I hear you answer "yes; at least in this instance."

The object in writing this letter, however, is not as much to vindicate myself from his false accusation as to show the veracity of which he endeavored to establish—that Woodland was in favor of "Woman Suffrage," thus leading into false security the champions of woman's rights, who, relying on F. B.'s letter would get the impression that at the right time the Woodland people of Woodland are numerous against "Woman's rights." To convert them to the side of "Woman's rights" much more lecturing and billposting will have to be done.

Perhaps, after all, it would be the best way to advance woman's rights for the men to change in places with their wives, as this man would be doing, and who, in accordance may yet be "Glorious" in the cause. Trusting this will prove satisfactory to all concerned, I remain respectfully,

ASH AND BOOR FACTORY.

This establishment, under the skillful management of Messrs. Sibley & Winne, is now under full headway and turning out a large amount of work, which is done in finished style with the aid of steam power and improved machinery.

Besides the manufacture of doors, sash, blinds, etc., they do general carpentering, scroll-sawing and all kinds of planing work, outside parties, on the shortest notice. Besides this the firm takes contracts for building houses, fences, etc.

Another New Store.

Morris Hyman, having tired of the old style of doing business, has withdrawn from the firm of S. & M. Hyman, and opened a store on his own hook on Main street, near the railroad.

A visit to the establishment convinces us that Mr. Hyman has selected his new stock with good taste. It consists of a general variety of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, groceries, etc. The store is tasty and inviting, and we recommend our friends to give Mr. Hyman a call.

Natural Curiosity.

Peter Kinkle, residing about a mile north of town, exhibited to us yesterday a chicken with four perfectly formed legs and four wings. The forward wings were natural, but the other two grew in from the back and then branched, somewhat resembling the Grecian Bend. The legs all seemed to be perfect, two growing out from the breast and the other two from near the tail. It may be seen at the drug store of Reed & Magee.

Boots and Shoes.

If any of our readers want a nice pair of boots Wm. Williams is the place to get them. An order will not be heretofore been aware, is the fact that Ladies and Misses gaiters and shoes are made to measure, and in the best style, by competent workmen. Give him a trial, and we guarantee satisfaction. Shop opposite the College.

Etna Fire Insurance Agency.

Mr. J. S. Simpson has been appointed agent of the Etna in this place. This old standard Company is known to be one of the most reliable in the world, and a sharp discrimination which will redound to the benefit of the Company and the property-owners in this community.

Sabbath School Concert.

At the Methodist Church next Sabbath evening. The exercises will consist of singing and Scripture recitations by classes, short addresses to the children, etc. This is to be a real Children's Concert, and a pleasant time is anticipated. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Under Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff.

Sheriff Bullock, with the commencement of his regular term of office, appointed W. A. Henry Under Sheriff, and J. D. Lawson Deputy Sheriff, and with those efficient assistants is keeping everything pertaining to his office in ship-shape.

Band of Hope Meeting.

Next Sabbath being the first Sunday in April, is the regular time for the meeting of the Woodland Band of Hope. A full attendance is requested at Temperance Hall, at 3 o'clock P. M.

Surprise Donation Party.

On Wednesday evening last the worthy pastor of the M. E. Church, of this place, was surprised by a party of friends who besieged the parsonage. They left a donation of $77.50.

Combination of Legal Talent.

The well-known and popular attorneys, H. G. Burnett and S. G. Harper, have formed a copartnership. Office in the Hunter House.

Licenses Collected.

During the month the Tax-Collector informs us that he has collected upwards of twelve hundred dollars for licenses in this county.

Grand Jury and Trial Jury.

The grand jury sits on Monday next, and the trial jury on the following Monday.

If you wish the very best CABINET PHOTOGRAPHS, you must call on BRADLEY & TORSON, 492 Montgomery street, San Francisco.

Midnight Serenade.

Strains of sweetest music poused us as from a happy dream the other night, which we found proceeded from instruments of Wood & Simpson's string band. If the strains of music from the violin and guitar in the hands of these gentle can be surpassed we have yet to hear it. Gentlemen, call again.

New and Fashionable Spring Goods.

Fleishman & Kaufman have received a fine lot of fashionable spring dress goods, ladies' hats in great variety, cloaks, broche and other shawls, a variety of parasols, kid gloves, and a general assortment of spring and summer goods. Give them a call.

Defaulting Jurors Fined.

Justice Peterson determined to enforce the law and let parties know that its mandates must be obeyed, imposed a fine of $10 upon F. S. Freeman, and $25 upon B. Franklin, for failing to appear when summoned, as jurors.

Handsome Sign.

We notice a very handsome sign in front of the hardware store of Gray & Wood, the last work of the late H. B. Peterson, of the firm of M. Peterson & Bro. of this place.

BORN.

At Knight's Landing, March 27th, wife of John Miller, a daughter.

MARRIED.

At Cavechelle, March 26th, by S. N. Merino, J. P., Albert Wright to Miss Mary Eagan.

DIED.

At Little Lake, March 23d, L. P. McELHANY, aged 27 years. (Arkansas and Missouri papers please copy.)

Our beloved brother was stricken down on the 15th of March, of congestion, terminating in lung or typhoid fever, which was broken, in fatal bleeding and gangrene setting in.

He was called to his bedside, away from home, and witnessed his intense suffering for eight or nine days, when he departed this life. He became a member of the Christian Church, and a devoted Christian, and was a member of the time up to his death. He was a man of great worth, and a true friend to all who knew him. JOHN D. LAWSON.

THE YOLO DEMOCRAT.

[From the Little Corporal.]
Choice of Trades.

This recitation should be accompanied with appropriate action. Thus, the farmer should make motions for sowing, reaping, plowing, binding and pitching; the carpenter for planing, hammering and sawing; the mason for brick-laying and smoothing; the smith for blows on the anvil, and the shoemaker for sewing shoes, etcetera.

FIRST BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a farmer if I can—and I can!
I'll plow the ground, and the seed I'll sow;
I'll reap the grain, and the grass I'll mow;
I'll bind the sheaves, and I'll rake the hay,
And pitch it up on the mow away!

SECOND BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a carpenter if I can—and I can!
I'll plane like this, and I'll hammer so;
And this is the way my saw shall go;
I'll make birdhouses, and sleds, and boats,
And a ship that shall race every craft that floats!

THIRD BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a shoemaker if I can—and I can!
I'll sit on a bench with my last held so;
And in and out shall my needles go;
Great chimneys I'll make; I think I'll be able
To build one as high as the Tower of Babel!

FOURTH BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a mason if I can—and I can!
I'll lay a brick this way, and lay one that;
Then take a trowel and smoothen that;
Great chimneys I'll make; I think I'll be able
To build one as high as the Tower of Babel!

FIFTH BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a shoemaker if I can—and I can!
I'll sit on a bench with my last held so;
And in and out shall my needles go;
Great chimneys I'll make; I think I'll be able
To build one as high as the Tower of Babel!

SIXTH BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a printer if I can—and I can!
I'll make pretty letters and pictures I'll sell;
I'll print the stories in the LITTLE CORPORA!
I'll have the first reading—ah! won't it be fun
To read all the stories that they are done?

SEVENTH BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a doctor if I can—and I can!
My powder and pills shall be nice and sweet,
And you shall have just what you like, to eat;
I'll prescribe for you, riding, sailing and such,
And, "bore all, you must not study too much!"

EIGHTH BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a minister, if I can—and I can!
And once in a while, a sermon I'll make,
That can keep little boys and girls awake.
For, ah! dear me! if the ministers knew,
How glad we are when they do get through!

NINTH BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a school committee, if I can—and I can!
I'll sing to my scholars, fine stories I'll tell;
I'll show them pictures, and, well—ah! well,
They shall have lessons in—poetry, I hope;
But oh! I shall make them so very short!

TENTH BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a school committee, if I can—and I can!
I'll sing to my scholars, fine stories I'll tell;
I'll show them pictures, and, well—ah! well,
They shall have lessons in—poetry, I hope;
But oh! I shall make them so very short!

ELEVENTH BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a school committee, if I can—and I can!
I'll sing to my scholars, fine stories I'll tell;
I'll show them pictures, and, well—ah! well,
They shall have lessons in—poetry, I hope;
But oh! I shall make them so very short!

Twelfth BOY.

When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a school committee, if I can—and I can!
I'll sing to my scholars, fine stories I'll tell;
I'll show them pictures, and, well—ah! well,
They shall have lessons in—poetry, I hope;
But oh! I shall make them so very short!

To read all the stories that they are done?
